

Kingston University

CERTIFICATE OF ERASMUS+ TEACHING MOBILITY ATTENDANCE

I hereby certify that

Dmytro Kobylkin

Participated in the Erasmus+ Programme

Grant Agreement Number 2020-1-UK01-KA107-078410 on a teaching mobility which provided the participant with continuing education and professional development run between 21/11/2022 and 25/11/2022, lectured or participated in each of the 5 days between 21nd November to 25th November 2022 on the modules titled, and at the academic level, as stated below:

GG6130 - Disaster Management (Level 6)

GG5045 - Disasters, society and culture (Level 5)

GG5190 - Geomorphology and Geophysical Hazards (Level 5)

GG4020 - Digital Earth and Spatial Analysis (Level 4)

and delivered a research seminar titled
" THE TRAGEDY OF CHERNOBYL: HISTORY, EMERGENCY RESPONSE AND CONSEQUENCES AND THE IMPACT OF THE WAR IN 2022 "

in Kingston University, London

The total European Credit is 1 ECTS

Joan-Anton Carbonell

Manager Study Abroad International Learning Office Kingston University, London

13th January 2023